Diary of a Sapling

Day 1:

My brother and I popped out of the soil today. My mother says I am now a sapling, because I'm not in the ground anymore. She says I'm going to become a big tree like her.

Day 1

Day 2:

My brother and I were freaked out when an alien spaceship poured some wet stuff on us this morning. Mom is really wise. She said the 'alien spaceship' was a watering can and the 'wet stuff' was water. After that me and my bro were relieved.

Day 3:

Today was our first day of school and I met a new friend. His name was Benny. Benny went to fast on the merry-go-round and all his leaves fell off and Miss Green had to cover him with a towel. Everybody laughed so hard, that some trees felt sick after that.

Day 4:

David found something that looked like a rock, but it was actually a piece of wood. Everybody started running around saying, "Murder! Murder! Murder!" Miss Green said that we should give the piece of wood a funeral, so we buried the piece of wood in a cemetery.

Day 4

Day 5:

My teacher told me that paper was made out of trees like me and that it was murder to write on paper. Hey, wait a minute, if this is paper, I must be...

This diary was cut off because this little sapling realized that it was murder to write on paper.
